RESPONSES:

Carlos Carillo responded last Sunday morning requesting prayers that he might succeed in his recovery and stay closer to God. He would also like to place membership with us here. Please keep Carlos in our prayers.

HOW CAN I SERVE?

When we have new members move here, or become baptized into Christ and added to His church, we give them a servant towel as an answer to the question, "What is there here in this place for me?" New members are given a Ministry Involvement Survey to help us know your interests, talents and experience that you might want to share. We are going to highlight some of the many opportunities offered as a way for us to serve God here.

Bear Ladies Ministry

This group meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. Material is cut, sewn, labeled and stuffed to create the bears. They are given to hospitals, police departments, etc. to comfort children during stressful or traumatic events. They have been sent to some of our mission points. This group has made thousands of bears in the past years. It is a wonderful ministry. If you have sewing skills (or not) and would like to serve with this ministry, please contact Jean Melson.
