DUANE HALL

Duane and Ailene moved to Hot Springs Village in 2012. He became involved at the Village Church of Christ and served in many capacities. He served as the Deacon over education before settling into his passion as Deacon over Finance and Administration. In 2017, he began serving as one of the Shepherds of our congregation. In addition to this important task, he continued to be responsible for the church finances, was a connection group leader, worked in the All About Kids Backpack food ministry, taught Bible classes and was available to help and serve anyone who needed help. His loving, caring, and serving presence will be greatly missed by all of us. A memorial service will be held Saturday, the 23rd, at the Village Church of Christ, at 2 PM. Social distancing and masks will be observed. The family has requested that in lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Project H.O.P.E. FoodBank, P. O. Box 39, Hot Springs, AR 71902. You can also donate via the Village Church of Christ, please note "Duane Hall/Project H.O.P.E." in the memo line.
